Long-Distance Valentine's Date Kit

An invitation, three date plans and 20 question cards.
For a video date on February 14 or any other evening.

✂ Cut along the dashed lines.

YOU ARE INVITED

A Valentine's Date on Video

Same evening, two screens, one table. Dress up a little.

Date _____

My time _____ Your time _____

Dress code _____

Please bring _____

How to use this kit

1. Fill in the invitation. Mail it or send a photo of it.
2. Pick a date plan on page 2: 60, 30 or 15 minutes.
3. Cut out the question cards on page 3. Each of you needs a set, so print it twice or send photos.
4. Different time zones? Agree on the start time in both times, for example "8 pm my time, 2 pm your time".

Before the call

- [ ] Charge the phone or laptop and find a stand for it.
- [ ] Test the sound and the light where you will sit.
- [ ] Get the food, the drink and the question cards ready.
- [ ] Turn off other notifications for the evening.

Three Date Plans

Pick the one that fits your evening. Times are in minutes from the start of the call.

60 minutes

The full date

0–10 min

Cheers
Dress up, raise a glass and show each other your outfits.

10–30 min

Dinner
Eat the same meal or order the same takeout, at your own tables.

30–45 min

Questions
Take turns with the question cards. Pick five each.

45–55 min

Draw each other
Two minutes to draw each other. Hold the drawings up.

55–60 min

Plan the next visit
Pick a date for the next visit and say it out loud.

Bring: your meal, a drink, paper and a pen.

30 minutes

The dessert date

0–5 min

Toast
Say one thing you liked about this year together.

5–20 min

Dessert & Questions
Eat the same dessert and use three question cards each.

20–30 min

Open a surprise
Open something your partner sent or read a letter aloud.

Bring: one dessert each and anything your partner mailed you.

15 minutes

The quick hello

0–5 min

Show and tell
Show one thing you made, bought or saved for the other.

5–12 min

Quick questions
Answer three question cards. Short answers are fine.

12–15 min

Goodbye for now
Say one thing you love and set the time for the next call.

Good for a work night or a big time difference.

Tip: put the phone or laptop on a stand at eye height, so your hands are free to eat, draw and hold up the cards. Between dates, the Soy & Mochi app shows your partner your mood and energy, even when one of you is asleep in another time zone.

20 Question Cards

Take turns. Draw a card, read it out and both answer.

✂ Cut along the dashed lines.

1. What was your first impression of me?
2. Which of our calls do you remember best?
3. What small thing do I do that you love?
4. Where should our next trip be?
5. What would we do right now if we were together?
6. Which song makes you think of us?
7. What is one thing you want us to learn together?
8. Which photo of us is your favorite?
9. What do you miss most about our last visit?
10. Which habit of mine have you picked up?
11. What does our perfect Sunday look like?
12. Which dish should we cook together next?
13. What made you laugh this week?
14. What part of your city do you want to show me?
15. What was the hardest part of this month?
16. What should next Valentine's Day look like?
17. When did you feel closest to me this year?
18. Which goal of yours can I cheer for?
19. What is the best gift you ever got?
20. Which three words describe us?

Made with love by Soy & Mochi, the cute app for couples · soyandmochi.com